

A young and educated community, outdoor recreation lifestyle, leading-edge technology infrastructure, higher education opportunities, and population growth are converging in Squamish. The result is a prime situation for immediate and future investment in knowledge-based industries in Squamish. Key sub-sectors include:

- Geotech & Envirotech
- Animation, film & television

- Recreational and sporting technologies
- Interactive New Media

Local Organizations

Source: Squamish Community Profile 2016

20

Inside Edge Knowledge Association 2016 Squamish Census

Active Squamish Businesses

Industry Composition

Source: Statistics Canada Business Register

Computer Systems Design & related services	34
 Administrative management & general management consulting 	33
Engineering Services	32
 All other professional, scientific, technical services 	29
 Bookkeeping, payroll and related services 	26
 Other management consulting services 	24
Photographic services	21

Zoning & Development Considerations
Downtown Commercial (C-4)	this zone accommodates business and professional office, major, as well as home occupation offices.
Light Industrial (I-1)	permits business and professional office, Minor use, subject to Section 33.13; Bylaw 2303, 2013.
Specialized Industrial Business (I-8)	permits business and professional office, minor, subject to Section 39A.13; Bylaw 2344, 2014.
Specialized Business Centre (I-9)	permits business and professional office, minor, subject to Section 39B.11; Bylaw 2344, 2014.
Mixed Use District (MUD-1)	accommodates a mix of light industrial, office, commercial, and residential development. Business and professional office permitted according to a map, see Section 39D.1; Bylaw 2523, 2017

Graphic Design services

SECTOR STATS

Estimated based on Statistics Canada Business Register

LABOUR FORCE FIELD OF STUDY

1,390

Management Occupations

Business, Finance & Administration

815

895

Natural & Health Applied Sciences Occupations

Education, law, social, community & government sérvices

Source: 2016 Statistics Canada Census

CONTACT US

economicdevelopment @squamish.ca

604.892.5217

squamish.ca/ economicdevelopment

Source: District Squamish Zoning Bylaw 2200, 2011